

Spotlight Entertainments was founded in 1993. Since this time the business has gained its excellent reputation by providing high quality, innovative entertainment and an efficient level of service.

All our entertainers and musicians are carefully selected both for high performance standards and for the ability to work with you effectively on the day of the booking.

"The artists you represent are faultless in their professional approach, eternally warm natured and hard working, and showing endless goodwill to our clients and to the store team" - Polo Ralph Lauren

"It was all an overwhleming success. We were both very confident that this would be the case as your company has been highly professional, helpful and efficient" - Private client

"Our Sales Director has called it the best party ever" - Unilever

"The music was excellent- The Best Man actually split his trousers twice while showing off his dance moves!" - Wedding client

"You have been the best....You have been so helpful and really recognised what we were looking for" -Private client

Providing high quality music and entertainment since 1993
